

Future Athlete Program

When a child is placed in custody it is therapeutic for the child to participate in their community sporting programs. Thru their participation in sports the child is able to participate in something where they must associate as a team and learn personal fitness and health. The future athlete program allows families to get their child out of the home and participate in something recreational and become part of a team. Contributions to this program will allow us to allocate a fund directly towards the children who would like to engage in community sports.

Often times when children are participating in sports they need to acquire:

- Players registration
- Sporting equipment,
- Sporting clothes (appropriate to the sport)

A lot of times these expenses are coming right out of pocket from our proctoring families because funds are not available to cover these expenses, and with the economy fluctuating as it is a lot of times our families struggle to cover these expenses. 100% of your donation is going directly to the client in our program. We would greatly appreciate any donation you can offer our program.

Donations can be made by:

- Donating sporting goods
- Donating sporting clothing
- Gift Card donations
- Check or Money Order
- Sponsor a child (Sponsor or fund a particular child of your choice)
